

Addendum to LHS Student Handbook Virtual Learning Code of Conduct

All Lebanon high school students receiving digital curriculum and direct instruction online are subject to all District policies as well as this Virtual Learning Code of Conduct. As a virtual learning student, there are additional rules and expectations in place in order to protect all students and staff members.

Please review the following rules and expectations carefully:

- Students are responsible for proper behavior during online learning. It is not acceptable to use obscene, profane, threatening, or disrespectful language.
- We take integrity and authenticity of student work very seriously. Do not cut, copy, or plagiarize Internet content or the work of your online classmates. Copying, knowingly allowing others to copy from you, and/or misusing Internet content will result in disciplinary action.
- Remote Learning correspondence is not private. Never say, write, or record anything that would not be appropriate in a regular classroom.
- Protect your passwords from others.

INTERNET USAGE POLICY

All Internet data that is composed, transmitted, or received via our computer communications systems is considered to be part of the official records of Lebanon High School and is subject to disclosure to parents, administration or other third parties. Consequently, LHS expects both students and parents to abide by the school's Internet usage policy: Data that is composed, transmitted, accessed, or received via the Internet must not contain content that could be considered discriminatory, offensive, obscene, threatening, harassing, intimidating, or disruptive to any other person. Examples of unacceptable content may include, but are not limited to, sexual comments or images, racial slurs, gender-specific comments, or any other comments or images that could reasonably offend someone on the basis of race, age, sex, religious or political beliefs, national origin, disability, sexual orientation, or any other characteristic protected by law. Abuse of Internet platforms and tools in violation of school policies will result in disciplinary action.

Below are examples of poor behavior that are prohibited, but are not limited to this list. These behaviors will result in disciplinary action.

- Sending or posting discriminatory, harassing, or threatening messages or images.
